

The current arrangement stimulates competition and benefits consumers. As Chairman Powell so correctly said, "Please do not sell out to BIG BUSINESS, at the expense of competition and the small businesses of our country." The proposed change adds no value and places consumers at great risk with little recourse.